COURSE NO. 3539 0

This course focuses on the growing trend in credit card delinquencies, student loan delinquencies, and unpaid medical bills that result from a lack of comprehensive health insurance. You will learn how to properly represent clients that are heavily debt laden and collect damages and attorneys' fees from creditors, debt collectors, and credit reporting agencies that violate state and federal consumer protection laws.

The course was designed for attorneys that are going to fill the void created by the Federal Trade Commission's telemarketing sales rule that will effectively eliminate 84% of all debt settlement and debt management companies. Attendees will also be eligible to receive referrals from the Center for Legal Justice, a Florida Bar Compliant Lawyer Referral Service and additional training upon request.
